

Launch of the Seren Môr Consortium

Monday April 16th 2018 at 9.30am – 12.30pm

We are thrilled to be publicly launching the Seren Môr Consortium on Monday 16th April at the Guildhall in Swansea. Arrival is 9.30am to start at 10.00am, will finish at 11.45 for lunch and networking. The Seren Môr Consortium is a group of providers that deliver specialist services and support to women, men, children and young people impacted by violence against women, domestic abuse and sexual violence across the Western Bay Area of South Wales. Seren Môr Consortium launch will be opened by Julie James AM - Leader of the House and Chief Whip and we have a selection of speakers attending including Alun Michaels - South Wales Police and Crime Commissioner.
